

Programme structure(s) and requirements, levels and modulesRequirements

Students must take a minimum of 105 credits in French modules, 105 credits in German modules and 90 Credits in European Studies in addition to the Year Abroad module in either French or German over the period of their studies. The Year Abroad is worth 120 credits and is a compulsory and integral part of the degree programme. Exceptionally the School can exempt students from the Year Abroad. These students will submit a change of programme form to change their degree programme to a 3-year degree programme. The programme requirements for the 3 year variant are exactly the same as for the 4 year programme but without the Year Abroad requirements.

StructureYear 1

Students are separated into 4 German Language Streams and follow the degree pathways as follows

Progression Requirements to Year Abroad/Final Year

To successfully progress to the Year Abroad (or Final Year for exempted students) students must pass a minimum of 180 credits from their first and second years including the core language modules. Exceptionally the School may progress a student to the Year Abroad if the student has passed 180 credits from their first and second year but not the core language module. The student must re-sit the failed core language module during the following academic year and may not progress to final year from the Year Abroad until this hurdle has been passed.

Year Abroad

EITHER 120 Credits compulsory French Year Abroad module OR 120 Credits compulsory German Year Abroad module OR the Semester Abroad 60 credit module in both languages. Students who have started studying German from ab-initio level must take the German Year Abroad module

Requirements for Award

Students must pass a minimum of 270 credits including both the final year core language modules, but not including the Year Abroad (if applicable). Students who met the numerical requirement for award but who have not passed one of the final year core language modules will be awarded a degree with the one of the alternative exit titles: French and German Studies (European Studies) or German and French Studies (European Studies). If students fail to pass both the final year core language modules but meet the numerical requirements for award they will be awarded a degree with the exit title: French Studies and German Studies (European Studies)
