

RR21 French and German

Programme structure(s) and requirements, levels and modules

Requirements

Students must take a minimum of 135 credits in French modules and 135 credits in German modules in addition to the Year Abroad module in either French or German over the period of their studies. The Year Abroad is worth 120 credits and is a compulsory and integral part of the degree programme. Exceptionally the School can exempt students from the Year Abroad. These students will submit a change of programme form to change their degree to a 3-year degree. The programme requirements for the 3 year variant are exactly the same as for the 4 year programme but without the Year Abroad requirements.

Structure

Students are separated into 4 German language streams and follow the degree pathways as follows

Progression Requirements to Year Abroad/Final Year

To successfully progress to the Year Abroad (or Final Year for exempted students) students must pass a minimum of 180 credits from their first and second years including the core language modules. Exceptionally the School may progress a student to the Year Abroad if the student has passed 180 credits from their first and second year but not the core language module. The student must re-sit the failed core language module during the following academic year and may not progress to final year from the Year Abroad until this hurdle has been passed.

Year Abroad

EITHER 120 Credits compulsory French Year Abroad module OR 120 Credits compulsory German Year Abroad module, OR 60 Credits compulsory French Semester Abroad AND 60 Credits compulsory German Semester Abroad. Students who began studying German from ab-initio level must take the German Year Abroad module.

Requirements for Award

Students must pass a minimum of 270 credits including both the final year core language modules, but not including the Year Abroad module (if applicable). Students who met the numerical requirement for award but who have not passed one of the final year core language modules will be awarded a degree with one of the alternative exit titles French and German Studies or German and French Studies. If a student has met the numerical requirements for award but had failed both final year language modules they will be awarded the alternative exit title French Studies and German Studies.
